THIRD EDITION

GILBERTON.

Rev. Maginnis, of the Primitive Methodist church, was agreeably surprised last evening by his flock, who, after a little speech, presented their pastor with a generously filled purse.

Miss Bridget Fogarty, of Philadelphia, has been visiting her father, Squire Edward Fogarty, for the past few days.

Joseph Mulligan, of Girardville, was yesterday the guest of the popular Thomas Wynne.

George Hanawide, formerly an interpreter at the Miners' Hospital, but more recently in the mission business at Ashland, has closed his recent tour of the Sheriff, who has levied upon it for debt.

Mrs. Ben, mother of Mrs. Chris. Kerns, was buried yesterday in Ashland.

Miss Annie Munley spent Monday in Mahanoy City.

William O'Brien visited Pottsville yesterday morning.

Mrs. J. J. Williams was a Mahanoy City visitor on Monday.

Lawrence Keating is the guest of relatives in Shamokin.

William Tregea, an old resident of this borough, but lately of Philadelphia, is visiting his old friends about town.

GIRARDVILLE.

Frank Mahoy, of Shenandoah, made business calls here yesterday.

West Tyson and Miss Florence Tyson will soon leave our town to accept positions with a wholesale quonware establishment in Reading. The departure of these two popular residents is deeply regretted by their large circle of friends here, who wish them untold success in their new field of employment.

William Egan has returned from Pottsville. Mrs. James Kelly, of Mahanoy City, has been the guest of Mrs. Christ Devlin, of Ogden street.

Miss Walte, of Danville, visited friends in town this week.

Mrs. B. P. Wagner is visiting out of town. Miss Large, of Yatesville, has been visiting her sister, Miss Tessie Large, of Parker street.

Miss Ella T. Coyle, one of Philadelphia's rising young telegraphers, has returned to her home for a brief stay.

Miss Mame Semer, of Homestead, has very low with the grippe.

"Phil" Connell, chief clerk in the Commonwealth office, is winning fame and ducks for himself in the drama. He appeared to a full house in St. Clair on Saturday evening, in a production of his own creation entitled, "The Shamrock and the Rose," and we look for a repetition of his play for the benefit of his old friends in Girardville at an early date.

MAHANAY CITY.

MAHANAY CITY, Jan. 23.

Patrick Mahaney, one of our clothing merchants, is visiting Shenandoah.

John Summers returned from Girardville yesterday.

Paul Simko, of Morea, deposited $35 with Ignatz Cashuk, his boarding house, a week ago. Yesterday when Simko came to draw on his banker, Cashuk, the latter denied that he had received more than $25. He returned the full amount, however, when confronted before Squire O'Brien with the charge of larceny as bailor.

J. J. Ryan and J. J. Batigan returned from Port Carbon yesterday morning.

Edward McLaughry, William Mahler and James P. Gallagher posed at the county seat yesterday.

Anthony Potlunas disagreed with Joseph Gonski over the payment of a mug of beer, and attempted to enliven Gonski's understanding with a few punches and a shake. Potlunas almost demolished Squire Fogarty's office furniture in explaining his views of the case. The Squire, however, could not entertain Anthony's views and presented him with two bills of sixteen dollars for assault and battery.

Miss Agnes and Jessie Stein and Doctor Irwin, of Shenandoah, witnessed the production of "Salazar" at the Opera House last evening.

Edward Shellaw, an old gentleman living on Railroad street, is lying very low with the grippe.

It was reported this morning that Charles D. Kaiser is again confined to his home by sickness.

A three-year old child of John Whirly died on Sunday and will be buried on Wednesday at St. Calixtus cemetery on the hill.

The scene in which Mackie jumps through the large Old Fashioned Clock is received with shouts of laughter and thunders of applause. James B. Mackie will appear at Ferguson's theatre next Tuesday evening, January 30th.

CENTRALIA.

Anthony McNeilus returned to Philadelphia after spending a few days here.

Miss Emma Borge and sister, Pauline, went to Shenandoah yesterday.

David McKenna, the hustling agent for the Krom Stationery Co., of Wilkes-Barre, has been in town for the past few days.

James May, of Shamokin, paid a flying visit to town yesterday.

David Dyke and wife have returned after spending a few days in Quaker City.

Miss Kate Haggerty, of Philadelphia, has returned after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Haggerty, of town.

Michael Brennan, of Berman, Minn., has returned after spending a few pleasant weeks with his son, Robert Brennan, of town. W. Yarworth, an aged and respected citizen of town, died Monday morning. He had been ill for some time.

Mrs. Brennan, accompanied by her daughter, Libbie, left yesterday for the city of Brotherly Love.

The Centralia and Logan collieries did not work to-day and only three hours yesterday, on account of cars.

The George A. Hill opera company produced the play entitled "The Golden Child" in the Odd Fellows' hall last evening. The scene is laid in the mining regions of the wild west and the heroine is Miss Ethel Fuller as Nancy. She is certainly an able actress and may be expected to take just as prominent a part in the coming plays as she did last evening. All the other members of the troupe did very well. The audience was very small, not near what the play deserved. Tomorrow evening this company will play "An Exile from Erin," or "The Dark Hour before Morn," and all who wish to see a first class show will do well to go. The prices of admission are 10, 20 and 30 cents.

"Grimes' Cellar Door."

Miss Louise Sanford is pronounced very fine in her specialties, with "Grimes' Cellar Door" company, and her costumes are well worth seeing. At Ferguson's theatre on Tuesday evening, January 30th.

Beer in Mind

John A. Reilly is in the place to get the purest wines and liquors, best beer and also and finest brands of cigars. 10-16-4f

Miss Louise Sanford, the dancing soubrette, is a decided success in Mackie's "Grimes' Cellar Door." Her impersonation of Pandora the Goddess of Mischief, is quite original, and her specialty is very fine. At Ferguson's theatre on Tuesday, January 30th.

A Remarkable Letter.

CARLETON, N. Y.—Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.—My dear Sir: I have been an invalid for 43 years, suffering from a complication of diseases, much of the time unable to sit up in bed. Five or six times have been reported dead, and on the 8th of last October there was an account of my death published in nearly all the papers throughout the country. Although it seemed as if it was too late to find any medicine that would benefit me, thank God I did find it in Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y. I have been on the gain ever since I began its use. I am feeling better than I have for 23 years past and am a marvel to all my acquaintances, as many look upon me as one risen from the dead. May God ever bless and prosper you who have given to the world a medicine of such wonderful curative power, is my prayer. Your obedient servant, R. F. CHAMBERLAIN.

Mackie's songs receive five and six calls every night. At Ferguson's theatre on Tuesday evening, January 30th.

Prompt Settlement.

To the Officers of the Home Friendly Society of Baltimore, Md.

I tender my sincere thanks for the claim on my beloved daughter, Lizzie, through your superintendent W. T. Evans and Agent James Patterson the sum of $30, full amount due. I recommend all seeking insurance to join the Home Friendly, as it is reliable and prompt.

Watch our advertisement next week and you will see how Mr. Cleveland got into a dangerous predicament. It is a well-known fact that President Cleveland, Secretary Carlisle, Mr. Chauncey Depew and many other distinguished people attended only one or two days each. Why they did not remain longer has been a profound secret until the present moment. But at last the secret is out. They found that it would be impossible to see the Fair and learn all about it unless they remained all summer. They also learned that a

The World's Fair!

Complete Official Pictorial History of The World's Fair and the Midway Plaisance

was in course of preparation and would be published soon after the close of the Exposition under the appropriate and attractive title,

The Magic City!

Containing Over 300 Grand Photographic Views.

More than $50,000 have been expended in the preparation of this truly magnificent work, and $50,000 more will be expended in completing it. These photographs were taken by real artists, who knew how to select points of greatest and from which the best views could be obtained. The "Magic City" was determined to have nothing but the best, and we were willing to pay for it, knowing it would be appreciated by the public.

These Views are Original. They are Exclusive.
They are Representative. They are Historical.

In addition to the photographs secured by our special artists, we also have the pick and choice of those taken by the official photographer of the United States government. It was reserved for The Magic City alone to give the only great historical representation of the World's Fair and Midway Plaisance, illustrated with comprising an immense and wonderfully beautiful oblong volume, 11 x 14 inches in size.

One Coupon and 10 Cents Gets It. "The Magic City" is published in 16 consecutive weekly parts or portfolios, each portfolio containing 16 to 20 of these splendid original photographs and historical descriptions by the celebrated American author, J. W. Buel. The photographs could not be purchased separately for less than $1.00 to $1.50 each. Portfolio No. 1 is now ready. Cut out the coupon on page 4 and mail it or bring it to the office of the HERALD, with Ten Cents in silver, and you will get Portfolio No. 1. We charge no postage on parts sent by mail.

Remember, the portfolio of "The Magic City" can be obtained only from the HERALD. The publishers have decided to make this great work exclusive and something worth having on account of its originality and superiority. It is a complete reproduction and re-opening of the World's Fair and Midway Plaisance, in all their glory and beauty. Address mail orders to Art Department, Herald Office, Shenandoah.

Don't fail to read the subsequent advertisements. You wouldn't miss it for a dollar.
